QUEEN ANNE'S AND KENT COUNTY RAILROAD.

1867, c. 316 repeals 1866, c. 165 on the same subject, and provides that a majority of the commissioners of Queen Anne's county are hereby authorized and directed, as soon as subscriptions for two thousand and twenty shares of the capital stock of the Queen Anne's and Kent County Railroad Company shall have been made by other parties, to subscribe in behalf of said county for two thousand and four hundred shares of the said stock, and in payment of the said subscription to issue bonds in the name of the county commissioners of said county, in such sums and redeemable in such time or times within twenty years as the said commissioners shall prescribe on the face of said bonds, and to sell the said bonds and apply the proceeds of such sales in payment for the stock so subscribed for by them, and to each of said bonds shall be attached coupons for the interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly. That the said bonds shall be exempt from county and municipal taxation, and that the faith of Queen Anne's county is hereby pledged for the redemption thereof. That the said county commissioners shall levy on all property subject to taxation for the ordinary expenses of the said county such sum or sums of money as shall, in their discretion be necessary for the prompt payment of the principal and interest of the said bonds, and shall provide the mode and manner in which such payment shall be made, the said taxes to be levied and collected as other taxes in said county are levied and collected. That the said county commissioners are hereby authorized, at any time or times, to sell or pledge the shares of stock which may be subscribed for under the provisions of this act, or any part thereof, and to apply the proceeds of such sales or pledges, together with the dividends accruing on such shares, to the payment of said bonds or the interest thereon. That a majority of the said county commissioners are hereby empowered to vote the stock subscribed for by virtue of this act, at any meeting of the stockholders of the Queen Anne's and Kent County Railroad Company, in such manner and subject to such restrictions and conditions as the private stockholders in the said company are or may be authorized to vote their individual stock.
